The design of your new TrussMark garage package can be very flexible. These two plans were designed based on general desires of our customers. Plan# 576 is a basic building for storage of two average vehicles and some yard storage. Plan# 1280 is more than just a garage, it is designed for a studio space above the garage area which could become a small apartment or hobby room. The attractive exterior of the 1280 garage features a rustic barn styling which is very appealing. Plan# 576 has a traditional exterior that is always popular. Of course, you have options in these plans such as the choice of the exterior finish/siding.
